

What is PathwaysMedicalCare.ca?

A new one-stop online directory to easily find information about doctors and medical clinics in British Columbia, which can be accessed at PathwaysMedicalCare.ca.

We want you to find the latest information about our office and services by going to the PathwaysMedicalCare.ca website. If we have new instructions or online forms that we would like you to complete before a visit, they will be on our listing at PathwaysMedicalCare.ca.

As new information becomes available about COVID-19, our PathwaysMedicalCare.ca listing will be updated.

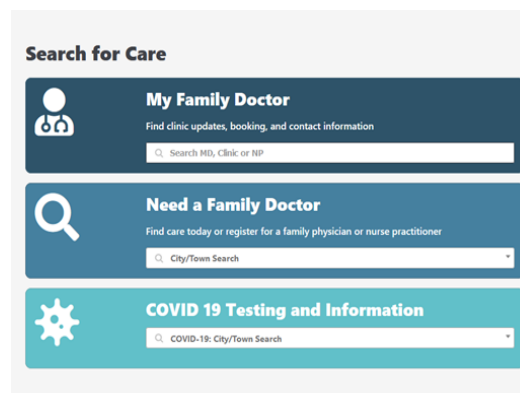

Contact your family doctor when you need care

We would like our patients to see our team first for your health care needs since we know your health history and goals. This helps avoid duplicate tests, medication errors and even hospitalizations. Ultimately, it helps us to provide you with better, safer care. (1, 2)
